

Agricultural forum - three locations!

You are invited to our free multiple topic forums featuring guest speakers from across CQ.

Moura – 21 February, 8:30am – 4pm

Supported by Moura Vet Clinic

- Local issues from your local Vet - Andrew Morley, Moura Vet Clinic
- Improve the profitability and performance of your agribusiness - Gordon Stone, ABDI's Agri-Business Mentoring Programs
- Grazing BMP - Jo Gamjami, DAF
- Meat sales, pricing and the future - Brad Hall, JBS Australia
- Pest animal baiting/synthetic baits - Chris Roach
- Stopping the spread of Tilapia - Shannon van Nunen, FBA
- Pest Management in the 21st century - John Reeve

Taroom – 22 February, 8:30am – 4pm

Co-hosted by Taroom Vet Clinic

- Breeding F1 Wagyu - how to source genetics? Which genetics are right? How to sell? - Greg Krarup
- New techniques in horse wound management - Cassandra Robinson, Darling Downs Vets
- 10 commandments of more profitable beef production - Fred Chudleigh, DAFF Ag Economist
- Getting more calves – bull testing and cow management - Alan Guilfoyle, Clermont Vets
- Fixed time AI programs - Bill Cornell, ABS Semen
- Biosecurity Harrisia Cactus - John Conroy

Injune – 23 February, 8:30am – 4pm

- Tim McClymont ... Roma Vet covering production management
- Grazing BMP - Jo Gamjami, DAF
- Meat sales, pricing and the future - Brad Hall, JBS Australia
- Pest animal baiting/synthetic baits - Chris Roach
- Stopping the spread of Tilapia - Shannon van Nunen, FBA
- Pest Management in the 21st century - John Reeve

Lunch, morning and afternoon tea provided. To RSVP or for more information please see the contact details on the reverse page.

Chat to our team about upcoming training and funding opportunities for the Fitzroy Basin at the events.

